- Artificial Intelligence, Research, Innovation & Emerging Technologies — AI-enabled solutions, intelligent automation, applied research and development, technology exploration, prototyping, innovation support, and the integration of emerging technologies into digital and business environments.
- Technology Products, Licensing, Digital Commerce & Commercialization — licensing, marketing, sale, distribution, authorized representation, market-readiness support, digital commerce, partnerships, commercial channels, and commercialization of technology products, software, digital solutions, and related innovations.

These activities and capabilities may be delivered independently or combined across multiple categories within coordinated and integrated engagements tailored to the client's business, technology, operational, and project requirements.

The Company undertakes its activities subject to the legal, regulatory, contractual, professional, licensing, and jurisdictional requirements applicable to each activity, service, market, and engagement.

6. Professional & Regulatory Position

WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. provides technology, business, advisory, project, professional, and related support services within the scope of its approved business activities and applicable legal, contractual, and jurisdictional requirements.

Unless expressly stated and lawfully authorized, WORKS does not hold itself out as a regulated financial services provider, investment adviser or manager, law firm, tax or accounting firm, statutory auditor, certification or accreditation body, or other regulated professional service provider requiring specific authorization or professional qualification.

Where an engagement requires specialist regulated or licensed services, WORKS may, where appropriate and legally permitted, coordinate with appropriately qualified and authorized external professionals or service providers.

Nothing on this website shall be interpreted as representing that WORKS holds any regulatory licence, professional authorization, accreditation, or statutory status that has not been expressly identified by the Company.

7. Third-Party Services & Providers

Certain services, solutions, projects, or business activities of WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. may involve or depend on third-party providers, including technology vendors, cloud and hosting providers, software platforms, professional advisers, contractors, suppliers, specialists, and other external service providers.

Where third-party products or services are involved, separate terms, licences, fees, policies, service levels, or technical requirements may apply, and availability, performance, approvals, platform decisions, or other determinations made independently by third parties remain outside WORKS's direct control.

WORKS may, where appropriate, coordinate, integrate, implement, support, facilitate access to, or commercially represent third-party products or services within the scope of the relevant engagement or authorization.

Unless expressly agreed otherwise, such involvement does not create ownership, agency, partnership, exclusivity, or guarantee beyond the scope expressly assumed by WORKS.

8. Intellectual Property & Corporate Identity

Unless otherwise stated, the names, trademarks, logos, slogans, brand elements, website content, original materials, designs, methodologies, software, digital assets, and other proprietary materials associated with WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. are owned by, licensed to, or otherwise lawfully used by the Company.

Such materials may not be copied, reproduced, modified, distributed, published, commercially exploited, or otherwise used beyond what is permitted by applicable law or expressly authorized by WORKS.

Intellectual property relating to client projects, joint developments, licensed materials, or third-party technologies shall be governed by the applicable contractual, licensing, and ownership arrangements.

Third-party trademarks, technologies, content, and other intellectual property remain the property of their respective owners.

Nothing on this website grants any licence, ownership interest, assignment, or other intellectual property right unless expressly stated in writing.

9. Website Information

The official website of WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. is:

The website provides general corporate, business, service, and contact information about WORKS. Website content is provided for informational and business-development purposes and does not, by itself, constitute a binding offer, professional advice, or guarantee the availability or outcome of any service, project, product, or third-party process.

Specific services and engagements are governed by the applicable proposal, agreement, statement of work, licence, or other relevant contractual terms.

Use of the website is also subject to the Company's applicable legal policies and notices.

10. Privacy & Data Protection

WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. seeks to handle personal information responsibly and in accordance with applicable privacy and data protection requirements.

The Company may collect and process personal information where necessary for website operation, communications, business enquiries, service delivery, verification, administration, security, and other legitimate corporate purposes.

Further information about how personal information is collected, used, stored, shared, and protected is provided in the Company's Privacy Policy.

Information relating to cookies and similar technologies is addressed separately in the Cookie Policy.

11. Payments, Cancellation & Refunds

Fees, payment terms, billing arrangements, and other commercial conditions applicable to any service, project, product, or engagement are determined through the relevant quotation, proposal, invoice, statement of work, service agreement, licence, order, or other applicable contractual documentation.

General principles relating to cancellations, withdrawals, service changes, and refunds are set out in the Company's Cancellation & Refund Policy.

Where specific terms have been expressly agreed for a particular engagement, those agreed terms shall apply to that engagement.

15. Corporate Information Use & Disclosure

Corporate information maintained by WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. may include legal, registration, contact, digital identity, operational, tax, banking, verification, and other corporate information.

The inclusion or retention of information within the Company's corporate records does not, by itself, mean that such information is intended for public disclosure.

Corporate information is published, shared, or disclosed only to the extent appropriate for its intended purpose and subject to applicable legal, regulatory, contractual, confidentiality, privacy, security, and verification requirements.

WORKS seeks to ensure that information published through its website, Unified Electronic Window, official communications, and authorized corporate materials reflects the current approved information relevant to each use.

16. Languages & Governing Version

WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. publishes its website, corporate information, and related legal policies, terms, and notices primarily in English as the Company's official and governing reference language.

Arabic and other translations may also be provided for accessibility and convenience.

Where an English version is published together with an Arabic version or another translation, the English version shall prevail and constitute the controlling reference version in the event of any inconsistency, conflict, discrepancy, or difference in wording, meaning, or interpretation, unless expressly stated otherwise or required by applicable law.

Business communications, proposals, agreements, corporate documents, and project materials may be prepared in English, Arabic, or another language, or in bilingual or multilingual form, where appropriate and as agreed between the relevant parties.

17.Changes to Corporate Information

WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. seeks to maintain accurate and current corporate information across its website, Unified Electronic Window, official communications, and authorized corporate materials.

Where the Company's legal particulars, contact details, digital channels, operating information, or other relevant corporate data change, the corresponding public information may be updated accordingly.

Current approved corporate information shall be maintained through the Company's authorized corporate records and controlled identity and metadata framework.

Where appropriate, users may also refer to relevant official public records maintained by the State of Wyoming or other competent authorities.

18.Governing Corporate Jurisdiction

WORKS TECH CAPITAL INTERNATIONAL L.L.C. is organized under the laws of the State of Wyoming, United States of America, and is subject to the corporate laws and other legal and regulatory requirements applicable to the nature of its activities.

The Company may conduct business, provide services, enter into projects, build partnerships, or pursue opportunities in other jurisdictions where appropriate, subject to the legal, regulatory, licensing, professional, tax, contractual, and other requirements applicable in each relevant jurisdiction.

Nothing published on this website shall be interpreted as representing that WORKS is licensed, authorized, registered, or regulated in any jurisdiction or professional field where separate authorization is legally required unless expressly stated by the Company.
